

[SYSTEM FOR MAINTAINING POWER PLANT OUTAGE DATA]

Abstract of the Disclosure

A system for maintaining outage data provides for analysis of the data on a task by task basis. The data is electronically stored and used to generate reports, which may be provided automatically, and to determine best approaches to specific tasks. Monitoring of on-going tasks is also provided. The stored outage data is accessible both internal and external to the system.

Figures